

I am outraged that Sinclair Broadcasting, a media company governed by FCC regulations, would blatantly break your rules by airing an anti-Kerry program without offering a program with an opposing view. The FCC is charged with protecting the public airways--I would like to know what you are going to do about Sinclair's overt political bias and clear breach of our public airways.